Covenants, Conditions and Restrictions

The Declaration of Covenants, Conditions and Restrictions are intended to protect existing homeowners and guide the construction of new homes and other buildings in your community.

The restrictions governing the use of real estate, usually enforced by a homeowners' association is passed on to the new owner of property. For example, CC&R's may tell you how big the house can be or restrictions on landscaping. It is designed to maintain the continuity of your Community, if the property you intend to purchase is subject to CC&R's you should review the Community's CC&R's prior to signing the contract.

Each Community will have a copy of their CC&R's for your review.
